The Mediator will nominate one of the Parties to provide the Documents to him at least one week before the Mediation, or by such other date as may be agreed between the Parties and the Mediator, or in the absence of agreement as directed by the Mediator. Each Party will send to the Mediator by the same deadline, a concise summary ("the Case Summary") of its case in the Dispute; and

Where the mediation does not end in complete settlement, the mediator may make contact with the parties thereafter to see whether further progress might be possible. Many disputes which do not settle at the mediation settle later, usually as a result of what occurred or was learned at the mediation. Where the mediator is in contact with the parties after the mediation, the provisions of the Mediation Agreement continue to apply.
